SELECT your wife on a Choose-day, and marry on a Wedding-day.—Lip-pincott's.

And give her the pocket-book on Mon-day and let her commence cooking on Fry-day, and perhaps after awhile there may be a Son-day.

No matter how light-hearted and happy-go-lucky a man may be during life a grave condition confronts him at last.

THERE may be no hell as some of the preachers tell us and yet it looks as if some people ought to have a hot finish.

WE are in receipt of a communication from Prof. Ogilvie, former-Hawaii Not ly connected with Known the Koolau School
By Japanese as its principal, but who is now in Japan, in which is given the interesting information that the Hawaiian Islands are practically unknown to the people in Japan. "THE GARDEN ISLAND," said he, "is the only paper I have seen from the islands, and it seems remarkable that the Promotion Committee has not made more progress in exploiting the islands in what appears to be such a fertile field."

If such conditions really exist, it might be well for the Promotion Committee to direct its attention towards the land of the Cherry blossoms for a change. Our Promotion Committee could, we believe, do worse than take this matter up with Mr.
Ogilvie. He is a man widely known throughout the Territory, having taught school here for several years, is a man of intelligence and possesses a pleasing personality which would assist him materially in conducting a Bureau of Information with highly satisfactory results.

Among many of our conservative business men, there ever lurks a doubt as to the wisdom of appropriating funds for the continuation of the Promotion Committee, and it is just such an oversight as is exposed in Mr. Ogilvie's communication that gives rise to such.

GOVERNOR FREAK's choice for the head of the Board of Health, Good Choice brings a man into office whose Dr. Pratt, special training gives the Department, probably for the first time in its history, a practical man. Dr. Pratt knows the affairs of the Board of Health Department from a to z, and that the future work of the department will be conducted to the highest degree of satisfaction is assured simply from the fact that he is a PRACTI-CAL man, and "not" a theorist.

In reference to the condition of affairs in the Hanalei-Wainiha districts, the new president said to a reporter of THE GARDEN ISLAND last week: "I am delighted to hear such favorable reports from those districts. The matter of stamping out tuberculosis there means a campaign of education.
That is, the people must be educated in the right way of living, and under the prevailing circumstances, it will take some time to get the community entirely free from it.
"We have been so completely overwhelmed with work that we have not had as much time to devoted to the outside districts as we wished, but we are going right ahead now and will not let up a minute until our plans are entirely accomplished."

A HOME INSURANCE COMPANY IS BUSY

The recently organized Home Insurance Company of Honolulu is enjoying a run of business far beyond the rosiest of expectations.
At their temporary headquarters in the Stangenwald Building it has become necessary to engage the services of several extra clerks in order to take care of the constantly and rapidly increasing business.
Consequently, we found our friend Zeno K. Myers, manager of this prosperous concern, to be the busiest man in the city.

During a brief interview with him in his office, no less than five policies representing thousands of dollars were passed up for his signature, and later on, while engaged in conversation with Mr. Myers on the street, he was approached by a messenger who bore another policy bearing the signature of one of Honolulu's most reputable business houses. We congratulate the home concern on the success it has so far attained, and also congratulate the home business firms in their endeavors to stand by home industry.
